

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
Adapting to Survive in International Business	3
Learn from My Experience	4
When You Read My Book, I Promise You Will:	10
Reading Instructions	11
Why International Business? – Part One	13
The Evolution of Markets	14
Global labour forces and market influences	15
Labour markets	16
Environmental influences	17
New opportunities for international business	17
Medical tourism	18
Reproductive tourism.	21
Education	22
Population and Market Influence	22
Economies and the Future	23
What Does International Business Include and What Can You Do?	26
Markets Today and Tomorrow	30
Different Ways To Calculate Profits	35
Summary	38

Why International Business? – Part Two	40
Why Exporting?	40
Real reasons for exporting	41
Differences Between Domestic and International Marketing	43
Adapting Your Organization and Staff for International Business	44
Who Can Export?	45
When is the right time to enter new markets?	46
Exporting - expense or investment?	46
Exercise	48
Practicalities and Culture in International Business – Part One	50
How To Succeed on the Global Market	52
Optica, a Canadian Company Going International	52
Five Keys to Being Successful in International Business	59
↔ Communication	59
↔ Commitment	64
↔ Thorough preparations	68
↔ Well-tested products	71
↔ The importance of relationships	72
Practicalities and Culture in International Business – Part Two	74
Culture	74
Women in International Business	75
Your First Trip Abroad	80
Travel	80
What to bring on your business trip	82
Gift Giving	86
Tipping & Gratuities	88
Common Errors Made by a New Exporter	88
Summary	90
Practicalities and Culture in International Business – Part Three	92
Adapting to Diverse Cultures	92
Gestures, expressions, and body language	93
Entertaining - food, drinks, and dining	96
Titles and names	100
Business relationships and greetings	103
Communicating methods	110

Bribing	112
Demands on an Exporter and How It Influences the Company	117
Exercise and Additional Information	121
Resources.	122
Market Analysis – Finding the Right Information, Selecting Markets and Partners – Part One	123
Why Does Introduction of a New Product on a New Market Fail?	125
Why do some companies succeed?	126
Market Information and How To Find It	126
Practical market research.	126
Different ways to obtain information	128
Selecting Your New Market.	131
Official statistics and general information	135
Finding a Foreign Representative	137
Checklist: foreign partner	140
Prices and Discounts	141
Summary	145
Market Analysis – Finding the Right Information, Selecting Markets and Partners – Part Two	147
Modern Market Research - On-Line Databases	148
Fast information at your finger tips using search words	149
Exercise.	156
Selecting the Right Distribution and Sales Channels – Part One	157
How To Select Distribution Channels	158
How do customers want to buy?.	160
Distribution Options	162
Indirect Exporting, Such As International Firms and OEM.	164
International firm	164
Oem (original equipment manufacturer)	165
Export commission agents	165
Export merchants	165
Manufacturer’s export agents	165
Trading houses	166
Direct Exporting. (No ownership) Such as Agent and Distributor	166
Direct exporting. (Ownership). Organisations Like Representative Office and Subsidiary	170

Local Manufacturing: Licensing, Joint Venture, Etc.	175
Communication and Distribution	186
Other Methods of Distribution	189
Some More Alternatives	191
Piggybacking	191
Contractors	191
Multinational distribution	191
Summary	192
Selecting the Right Distribution and Sales Channels – Part Two . . .	194
E-Commerce	194
The Government Sector	198
Additional Distribution Solutions	198
Using Specific Sales Channels	200
Trends in International Sales.	202
Export consortiums	204
Local Demands on Distribution and Approvals	204
Why some joint ventures don't work?.	208
Pros and Cons of Different Distribution Solutions.	209
Indirect exporting	209
Direct exporting ownership and no ownership.	209
Export consortium	209
Representative office	210
Branch office	210
The subsidiary as sales company	211
Subsidiary for rent	212
Local manufacturing	213
Contract manufacturing	214
Direct export to end user	214
Using local distribution (distributors, dealers, etc.)	215
Trading houses	217
Licensing	218
Franchise.	219
Joint ventures	221
Buying a company.	222
Project Work – Exercise	222

Export Pricing and How To Influence Profitability – Part One	224
What Customer Is Willing To Pay	225
How To Calculate Export Prices	227
Calculating profit	228
Different Cost and Profit Depending on Type of Distribution Selected	228
Freight and duty costs as part of the cost calculation	236
What Is the End User Price?	237
Negotiating Prices	238
Pricing and Licensing	239
Intercompany Pricing, Transfer Pricing.	241
International Companies	243
Haggling or Bargaining	244
Summary	245
Export Pricing and How To Influence Profitability – Part Two	246
Price Based on What the Customer Is Willing To Pay	246
Taxation, Standard of Living and Controlled Pricing	248
Influence of Prices, Duties, and Freight When Selecting Foreign Supplier	250
Giving Discounts.	252
Exercises	258
Adapting Products/Services and Sales Material	263
Product & Service Adaption	264
Summary	269
Exercise.	270
Shipping – Transport, Trade Barriers, Trading Blocs, and International Organizations – Part One	271
Transport	272
Freight as Part of Costs	274
Calculation of Freight Cost - options	275
Transport Pricing	275
Selecting a Forwarder	277
The Importance of Packaging	278
Responsibility for Goods	280
Documentation	282
Trade Barriers	283
Summary	289

Shipping – Transport, Trade Barriers, Trading Blocs, and International Organizations – Part Two	291
Trading Blocks and Free Trade Agreements	291
Examples of Trade Arrangements	292
Other International Organisations of Interest	297
Exercises	298
Risks and Payments in International Business – Part One	300
Risk - Background	301
Country and Political Risks	302
Commercial Risks	303
Bank risks	303
Risks for Goods, Document Risks, Customs Duty and Taxes	305
Technical Risks	306
Payment Alternatives	306
Payment Risks and Security	307
How To Transmit Money	310
Summary - Risks and Payments	312
Risks and Payments in International Business – Part Two	314
Political Risks and How To Protect Yourself	314
Export Financing	315
Currency and Currency Risks	316
Changes in interest rates	318
Letters of Credit (L/C)	318
Other Forms of Payment	322
Countertrade	322
Types of countertrade	322
Exercise	323
Importing	325
How To Import?	326
Distribution	326
Differences Between Exporting and Importing	327
Finding a Supplier	328
Investigate Customs Duties, Quotas, Freight Costs, and Other Restrictions	329
Is There a Market for the Product? Can You Sell It?	329
Summary	331

Exercise	332
Legalities in International Business – Part One	333
Product Names	334
Trademark	336
Patent and Design Protection	337
Which Law Is Applicable?	339
Should You Use a Lawyer?	341
Summary	343
Legalities in International Business – Part Two	344
Contract	344
Main contract	345
Appendix	354
Product Liability	360
How Can You Minimize Risk?	361
Exercise	362
International Business in the Future	363
Future Markets, Technology, Customers and Workforce	364
High Tech, Information, and Medical Technology	378
Resources, Food, Work, and Education	382
Summary	389
Glossary	391
Links on the Web	407
Index	409